

- Why is this week's topic important for teamwork?

This week's topic is important for teamwork because it teaches about the habits that we could apply in our life to be more productive and efficient. Firstly personally then as a team.

- How do you plan on contributing to the team, besides completing your tasks?

I plan to apply everything learned such as being proactive, begin with the end in mind and think to win/win in all the future teams I will be working with.

- How does your experience relate to other experiences you have had?

I have learned how to be efficient in all that I do during my mission including being diligent and hard working but it is always important and rewarding to learn new sets of skills.

- How does your experience relate to other classmates' experiences?

I believe many of them served a mission as well and received all these teaching skills

- If this was a religion class, how would you relate this week's topic to the gospel?
- I would have related it to the Christlike attribute "Diligence"
